Composition of the Committee

The Committee shall be comprised of two or more directors, each of whom meets the requirements for a “Non-Employee Director” contained in Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Determinations as to whether a particular director satisfies the requirements for membership of the Committee shall be made by the Board. A Committee member shall be immediately removed from the Committee without further action by the Board if such member is found by the Board to no longer satisfy such requirements. The Board shall designate one member of the Committee to serve as its chair. The Committee may delegate any of its responsibilities to such chair, another Committee member or a subcommittee of the Committee, unless prohibited by applicable law, regulation or the Nasdaq Global Select Market (“NASDAQ”) listing standards.

The members of the Committee shall be appointed annually by the Board and serve at the discretion of the Board until their successors are appointed or their earlier resignation or removal. Any vacancies on the Committee may be filled by the Board after consideration of the recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Company with input from the Committee.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet with such frequency and at such intervals as it shall determine is necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities, but in any case, not less than twice a year.

The Committee may invite other directors, advisors and members of management of the Company to its meetings as it deems appropriate. The Committee shall meet regularly without members of management of the Company present and, in all cases, the Chief Executive Officer and any other executive officers of the Company shall not be present during the portion of the meetings at which their compensation is determined. The Committee may hold meetings by telephone, or other remote communication method and may take action by unanimous written consent.

The Committee will report its activities to the Board on a regular basis and make such recommendations with respect to its responsibilities and other matters as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate.

Except as otherwise provided by this Committee Charter or by applicable laws or regulations, as amended from time to time: (i) a majority of the members of the Committee entitled to vote, either present in person or by means of remote communication, or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the Committee and (ii) all actions of the Committee shall be by affirmative vote of a majority of those members so determined to be present or represented by proxy.

The Committee shall maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

External Advisors

The Committee shall have the authority, in its sole discretion, to select, retain and obtain the advice of consultants, outside legal counsel and other such advisors to assist with the execution of its duties and responsibilities as set forth in this Committee Charter. The Committee shall set the compensation and other retention terms, and oversee the work, of such consultants, outside legal counsel and other advisors. The Committee shall receive appropriate funding from the Company, as determined by the Committee in its capacity as a committee of the Board, for the payment of compensation to any of its consultants, outside legal counsel and other advisors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee shall be under no obligation to implement or follow the advice or recommendations of any such consultant, outside legal counsel or other advisor and shall at all times exercise its own judgment in fulfilling its duties and responsibilities under this Committee Charter.

In retaining any such consultants, outside legal counsel or other advisors, the Committee shall take into account the following six factors, which bear upon independence, and any other factor or factors that the Committee believes may bear upon independence:

- The provision of other services to the Company by such advisor's employer;
- The amount of fees received from the Company by such advisor's employer, as a percentage of the total revenue of such employer;
- The policies and procedures of such advisor's employer that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;

- Any business or personal relationship of such advisor or the advisor's employer with a member of the Committee;
- Any shares of common stock of the Company owned by such advisor or the advisor's employer; and
- Any business or personal relationship of such advisor or the advisor's employer with an executive officer of the Company.

The Committee shall conduct independence assessments with regard to any consultant, outside legal counsel or other advisor, unless such advisor's role is limited to:

- Consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company and is available generally to all salaried employees of the Company or
- Providing information that either is not customized for the Company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by such advisor, and about which the advisor does not provide advice.

The Committee shall evaluate whether any consultant, outside legal counsel or other advisor retained, or to be retained, by the Company has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(e)(3)(iv) of Regulation S-K under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and whether applicable independence requirements of the NASDAQ listing standards are satisfied. Nothing in this section shall require a consultant, outside legal counsel or other advisor to be independent—only that the Committee consider the independence factors outlined above before selecting or receiving advice from such advisor. The Committee may select or receive advice from any consultant, outside legal counsel or other advisor it prefers, including such advisors that are not independent, after considering the independence factors outlined above.

The Committee shall also have authority to obtain advice and assistance from any executive officer, other than the Chief Executive Officer with respect to his or her compensation, or employee of the Company. The Committee shall have full, unrestricted access to Company records.
